Winter Term in Borneo – Study at Swinburne Sarawak, Malaysia campus.

Spend Winter Term exploring Sarawak, Malaysia and fast-track your degree back home

This four week program gives you the chance to:

- Broaden your international outlook
- Strengthen your employability
- Develop independence
- Live on campus and meet other international students

When

Arrival: 23 June 2016 (accommodation check-in, orientation and first cultural activity).
Classes: 27 June – 22 July 2016
Departure: 23 July 2016

Units of study

INB30018 – South East Asia Business Context
Today’s evolving business environment in the South East Asia region. Issues that influence business in South East Asia including:

- Corporate social responsibility and ethics
- Management, globalization and regional integration
- Political, economic, socio-cultural, technological and legal frameworks applicable to South East Asia.

ENT30014 – Social Innovation Internship
Experience the work of a social enterprise and gain a fuller understanding of the operations, management and leadership required within social enterprises. Content includes:

- Entrepreneurship in social enterprises
- Sustainable business modelling
- Social enterprise experience
- Management and leadership within social enterprises
- Cross-cultural management
- Critical and reflective practices.

Indicative program cost

Approx. $1000
Includes: single accommodation with air conditioning, airport transfers, weekend activities.

Plus airfares (TBC)

Scholarships available.

Not included: visa (if required), travel insurance, meals (unless indicated on itinerary).

Information sessions

- Thursday 24 March 2016
  Study Abroad Lounge, SPW Ground Floor
  3.00pm – 4.00pm

- Wednesday 30 March 2016
  Study Abroad Lounge, SPW Ground Floor
  2.00pm – 3.00pm

- Friday 15 April 2016
  Study Abroad Lounge, SPW Ground Floor
  10.00am – 11.00am

Applications:

Applications close: 22 April 2016
Final Payment due: 31 May 2016

Contact:

Alastair de Rozario
+61 (0) 3 9214 6872 or email – studytours@swin.edu.au