WHAT IS AN EXPERIENCED ASSESSMENT PATHWAY?

Learning doesn't just happen in the classroom; it happens in all facets of life. An experienced assessment pathway is a great way to credit prior learning without having to provide evidence of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).

If you have extensive knowledge and experience in your field and would like to have this formally recognised, you may be eligible for this assessment pathway. Using this method, your competencies can be recognised through a formal assessment process. You will have access to the required assessment resources via our learning management system and also have access to a dedicated assessor who will support you through the assessment process.

Speak to one of our Customer Development Advisors to discuss your eligibility.

BENEFITS

- Have your existing skills and knowledge recognised, eliminating the need to attend training.
- Ability to complete a full qualification online, at your own pace, and in the hours that suit you.
- Gain access to our innovation precinct and world-class facilities such as Digital Innovation lab, Factory of the Future, Melbourne Design Factory, and more.
- Receive study assistance and career advice.
- Eliminate the need to re-learn what you have already mastered.
- No need to gather and collate a portfolio of evidence for a traditional RPL submission.
- No need to be currently working.
- Gain access to Swinburne's health and support services.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

To apply for an experienced assessment pathway, you must:

- Have a minimum of two years of recent work experience relevant to the unit/s of competency.
- Have the ability to source two employers or supervisors you have worked with in the last two years (may be from the same workplace) to verify skills, knowledge, and tasks completed in the workplace.
- Complete a self-assessment to verify you possess the relevant skills and knowledge to successfully complete the experienced assessment pathway.
- Complete a pre-training review to determine if the experienced assessment pathway will be suitable for you to gain the unit/s of competency.
- Be a full fee paying student.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

An experienced assessment pathway is perfect if you:

- Do not currently hold the entry requirement units of competency for the BSB51319 Diploma of Work Health and Safety.
- Wish to gain formal recognition of your prior skills and knowledge.
- May find it difficult to gather a portfolio of evidence to gain recognition of skills through a traditional RPL pathway.
