| 2021 RNA recommendations status report - Change the course | | | | | | |
|--|--|--|---|--|--|--|
| Change the course recommendation | Relevant PWC recommendations | Action taken meet recommendation | Status (complete vs in progress) | Responsible | Notes and ongoing actions | |
| Recommendation 1 | Nil relevant areas for improvement identified | In 2017, Swinburne formed the RNA Taskforce, which reports directly to the Vice Chancellor. | From 2020 onwards, new actions arising from the RNA Taskforce directives will be implemented and monitored by the university's Health Promotion and Primary Prevention (HPPP) team in | Vice-Chancellor RNA Chair Health Promotion and Primary | | |
| Vice-Chancellors should take direct responsibility for the implementation of these recommendations, including decision-making and monitoring and evaluation of | | The Taskforce includes representatives from the university's senior leadership | collaboration with specific members of the Taskforce as appropriate. | Prevention (HPPP) team | | |
| actions taken. | | (academic and professional), student groups, residential services, student wellbeing | | , | | |
| To assist and advise them in this respect, Vice-Chancellors should have an advisory | | and support services and legal services. Additional expertise is drawn upon as required. | Taskforce members will be kept up-to-date on the progress of all RNA initiatives through a 6-monthly report that will be sent around by | | | |
| body within their institution which has responsibility for guiding the implementation | | | the HPPP team. | | | |
| of the recommendations made in this report. | | Terms of Reference were developed and the Taskforce met on a six-weekly basis throughout the years of 2017, 2018 and 2019. | This revised approach will be reviewed on an ongoing basis. | | | |
| The advisory body should report directly to the Vice-Chancellor of each university and | | Senior members of the Taskforce were assigned to relevant recommendations as | | | | |
| include representatives from: • the university's senior leadership | | project leads. Project leads then developed action plans for their allocated | | | | |
| the university's senior leadership the student body | | recommendations. Project leads and action plans were further refined following the | | | | |
| academic staff | | release of the report from the external review in September 2018. | | | | |
| residential colleges affiliated with the university | | | | | | |
| student services, such as: counselling services, medical services and campus security | , | Since the beginning of 2020, the bulk of the project work related to RNA has been | | | | |
| and | | completed by the university's newly formed Health Promotion and Primary Prevention (HPPP) team in consultation with specific members of the Taskforce as appropriate. | | | | |
| frontline sexual assault services. | | The Taskforce provides reports to the Vice-Chancellor, Senior Executive and Council | | | | |
| The advisory body should be responsible for developing an action plan for the implementation of these recommendations. | | about progress made against the recommendations and other initiatives. | | | | |
| The development of an action plan should involve broad and extensive consultation | | | | | | |
| with all relevant stakeholders from the university community and, where relevant, the | | | | | | |
| wider community. The advisory body should also seek independent expertise where | | | | | | |
| relevant and draw on existing research and best practice. | | | | | | |
| The advisory body should assess and publicly report on the university's progress | | | | | | |
| towards implementation of these recommendations within 18 months. | | | | | | |
| , i | | | | | | |
| Recommendation 2 | 2.1.1 - In conjunction with key stakeholders responsible for training and | A stocktake of the university's primary prevention training was taken following the | Complete | HPPP team | Refer to the 2021 RNA plan for actions required to review what | |
| | prevention plan for the University (e.g. on an annual basis). This plan should | independaent review by PWC, and a matrix was developed to identify current and prospective training programs and their target cohorts. | | | primary prevention programs should | |
| Universities develop a plan for addressing the drivers of sexual assault and sexual harassment that: | be used to facilitate a coordinated University approach, and should consider | prospective training programs and their target conorts. | | | be implemented annually. | |
| provides students and staff with education about: behaviours that constitute sexual | the most effective and efficient use of University resources. | | | | , | |
| assault and sexual harassment, consent and respectful relationships, 'violence | | | | | | |
| supportive attitudes' and bystander intervention, and | | | | | | |
| identifies existing resources and communications campaigns that reinforce key | 2.1.2 Dayslan and implement processes for regular manitoring and review of | As above, the primary prevention training matrix was reveiwed on a 6 monthly basis. | Complete | HPPP team | New process of primary prevention | |
| messages of education programs for dissemination to staff and students. | progress against the formal primary prevention plan. | As above, the primary prevention training matrix was revenued on a 6 monthly basis. | Complete | nerr team | planning has been implemented as | |
| Education programs and communications should: | F6 | | | | of 2019. Details can be found in the | |
| target all levels of the organisation – current and future students, staff, residential | | | | | primary prevention planning | |
| colleges, public transport to/ from university, sports clubs, student societies and | | | | | procedure document. | |
| student unions | 2.2.1 - Take appropriate measures in order to ensure that key training | A review of the Consent Matter module was completed by Centre for Social Impact in | Complete | HPPP team, Swinburne | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for annual | |
| be based on best practice and research | modules can be accessed and understood by all students and staff, including | 2019 to determine whether the module has been effective and fit for purpose during | | Residences | monitoring and evaluation process. | |
| be developed and delivered by individuals and/or organisations with expertise in sexual violence prevention | those with particular needs. | its roll-out to Swinburne residential students. The review assessed it as being | | | | |
| be developed in consultation with university students, and | | appropropriate and recommended extending the program's reach to the broader | | | | |
| include measures for evaluating and refining the actions taken. | | university. | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | |
| | 2.2.2 - Conduct a review of the effectiveness of existing training modules, | As above, a review of the Consent Matter module was completed by Centre for Social | Complete | HPPP team | See HPPP strategic plan for other | |
| | including consideration of the need to update or enhance Swinburne's | Impact in 2019 to determine whether the module has been effective and fit for | | | primary prevention iniatives that | |
| | training or supplement it with other activity. | purpose during its roll-out to Swinburne residential students. | | | supplement the Consent Matters | |
| | | | | | course. | |
| | | The module has since been customised to be more fit for purpose for Swinburne | | | | |
| | | students by incorporating Swinburrne-specific support services and resources. All students have been enrolled in the course via Canvas. | | | | |
| | | scudents have been enrolled in the course via Canvas. | | | | |
| | | It also recommended supplementing the course with other primary prevention programs, which has been occuring since 2017. | | | | |
| | 2.2.3 - Based on the outcomes of the review in (2) above, take appropriate | | Complete | HPPP team, Swinburne | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions | |
| | measures to encourage training completion among students where there is | multi-channel marketing campaign including eDM, social media, digital signage and on | | Residences | to be taken to encourage student | |
| | not a current mandatory obligation to complete training modules. This could | campus activation activities delivered by the H.Squad that encourage students to | | | paticipation in primary prevention | |
| | include introduction of mandatory training to a wider cohort of students than | | | | programs. | |
| | just residential students in order to increase the awareness and preparedness | | | | | |
| | of the broader student population. | | | | | |

| | 2.3.1-With reference to the recommendations in Observation 2.2, review the content of existing training modules that are administered to students to ensure that these are comprehensive and understandable. | Refer to 2.2.2 above re: review of content completed. The module has been customised to include Swinburne specific resources, and support services to make it more comprehesive. | Complete | HPPP team | Refer to primary prevention planning procedure document for review process |
|---|--|---|-------------|---------------------------|--|
| | 2.4.1 - Review the pilot training program to consider benefits realisation and effectiveness of the program, and decide whether a program of this nature should be implemented on a permanent basic. When planning further training for international students, management should consider the need to take a coordinated university approach, and should consider the most effective and efficient use of University presources (refer to Observation 1). | Pilot training program reviewed and decision was made to use program ongoing, but include Swinburne-specific customisations. Is now hosted on Canvas and available to all students. | Complete | HPPP team | |
| Recommendation 3 In order to ensure students and staff know about support services and reporting | 2.6.1 - Develop relationships with local nightlife venues that are frequently attended by students, and develop processes for regular communication with these venues. | Local nightlife venues were engaged following review and were informed of Swinburne's approach to sexual assault and sexual harassment initiatives. Hammer and Swine was the only venue who will actively engage. | Complete | Safer Community, Security | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions to revisit relationship building with local nightlife venues. |
| processes for sexual assault or sexual harassment, universities should: • widely disseminate information about university reporting avenues to staff and students | 2.6.2 - Identify opportunities for increased security and support for students who attend, or are in close proximity to nightlife events, particularly at venues where sexual assault and sexual harassment is known to have taken place historically. | Opportuities to increase security were identified, however the venues haven't engaged with the univeristy regarding this. They are happy to receive flyers/information but want no further involvement. | Complete | Safer Community, Security | As above. |
| widely disseminate information about internal and external services to staff and students, including: university counselling and medical services, campus security, loca sexual assault services, police, medical centres, hospitals, counselling services and and discrimination agencies ensure that information about internal and external reporting procedures and support services is displayed clearly, in a logical place(s) on the university website | 2.7.1 - Update Swinburne's formal documentation in order to formalise the processes and controls that are undertaken to reduce risks associated with off | There are now resources to cover local excursions and international programs: - Excursion Procedures (PAVE) – These can be used or adapted by other units. - Statement of Practice on Prevention of Sexual Exploitation, Assault and Harassment in relation to overseas programs (Global Mobility Office). | Complete | Governance and Integrity | Refer to resources list for person responsible for review of documents. |
| ensure that information about internal and external reporting procedures and support services is provided to students as part of their orientation into university an to new staff as part of their human resources induction/on-boarding ensure that information about internal and external reporting procedures and | d to incidents of sexual assault or sexual harassment on offsite trips. This should be formally documented and distributed to relevant staff and students. | | | Governance and Integrity | Refer to resources list for person responsible for review of documents. |
| support services is a ccessible to all students and staff, including: people with disability, people from CALD backgrounds, and - develop relationships with external services (local sexual assault service, local hospital) to enable referral of students to these services where necessary. | 2.7.3 - Establish minimum standard of training or qualification requirements for staff or student leaders who oversee or attend offsite trips which are not facilitated by Student Life. These should be formally documented and communicated to relevant students and staff. | As above for 2.7.2 | Complete | Governance and Integrity | Refer to resources list for person responsible for review of documents. |
| nospital) to enable referral of students to these services where necessary. Universities should evaluate the activities undertaken to increase awareness of support services and reporting processes to ensure that these measures have been effective in increasing awareness among staff and students. | 2.8.1 - With reference to the guidance on anonymous reporting mechanisms in the On Safe Ground guidance, develop and implement an accessible mechanism to allow anonymous online reporting of sexual assault and sexual harassment. Appropriate measures should be taken to promote the existence and use by students of the anonymous reporting mechanism. | Anonymous reporting mechanism incorporated into the Safer Community online reporting form to enable anonymous reporting of sexual assault and sexual harassment. Swinburne actively promote anonymous reporting through South Eastern Centre Against Sexual Assault. | Complete | Safer Community | Refer to resources list for person respinsible for review of incident reporting form. |
| | 2.9.1 - Consider the opportunity to provide and support assistance (including for issues arising as a result of involvement with an allegation of sexual assault or sexual harassment) to at-risk student cohorts. In particular, management should consider the level of support that is currently available for cohorts of students who may have different experiences of sexual assault and sexual harassment (e.g. LGBTQ students, female students, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, students with disabilities). | In collaboration with internal and external support groups, Safer Community is developing materials specifically designed for at-risk student cohorts | In progress | Safer Community | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for this years actions related to this recommendation. |
| | 2.10.1 - Clarify requirements for incident investigations, (including roles & responsibilities, reporting and escalation processes, minimum training requirements, and key considerations for staff investigating or gathering facts). These requirements should be formally documented and communicated to staff. Management should refer to relevant guidance and reference materials, which could include guidelines published by Universities Australia on responding to reports of sexual assault and sexual harassment. | The below documents/reosurces were developed that address this refer to resources tab for links. For staff: - Sexual assault and harassment response guidelines' - 'Helping a student after sexual assault or harassment' process flow For students: - 'Seeking help after sexual assault or harassment' flyer | Complete | Safer Community | Refer to resources list for person responsible for review of documents Refer to 2021 RNA plan for approach to communicating this information to staff. |
| | 2.10.2 - Develop clear and accessible guidance for students about what will occur should a student report an incident, to reduce barriers to reporting and improve confidence in University processes. The guidance should also direct students to options for anonymous reporting. | - Sexual assault and sexual harassment factsheet for students' The following resources were created: - 'Seeking help after sexual assault or harassment' flyer - 'Sexual assault and sexual harassment factsheet for students' - Guidance has been incorporated into the Swinburne app under the 'Staying safe' tab | Complete | Safer Community | Refer to resources list for person responsible for review of documents |
| | 2.10.3 - Clarify for students and staff that action can be undertaken by the University without a victim/survivor reporting if there is perceived to be a broader risk to safety of students, staff or the public (e.g. a perpetrator of sexual assault or sexual harassment on campus). This includes instances where the incident has occurred within a public space. | The below documents/reosurces were developed that address this refer to resources tab for links. For staff: - 'Sexual assault and harassment response guidelines' - 'Helping a student after sexual assault or harassment' process flow For students: - 'Seeking help after sexual assault or harassment' flyer | Complete | Safer Community | Refer to resources list for person responsible for review of documents. Refer to 2021 RNA plan for approach to communicating this information to students. |
| | 2.10.4 - Develop formal processes in order to share information with Residential Advisors and Security relating to the students that are currently banned from entering residences in order to appropriately manage safety. | - 'Sexual assault and sexual harassment factsheet for students' Standard Operating Procedure (Banned Persons) has been developed | Complete | Residences, Security | Refer to resources list for person responsible for review of documents |

| | 2.11.1 - Clarify the requirements and processing for reporting of incidents to | Standard Operating Procedure (Victoria Police) has been developed | Complete | Safer Community, Security | Refer to resources list for person |
|--|--|---|---|-----------------------------|--|
| | the Police. This should include details of any specific circumstances that will | | | | responsible for review of documents |
| | be reported to Police, and guidance for staff on how to decide whether | | | | |
| | reporting to Police is appropriate. Requirements and processes should be | | | | |
| | formally documented and communicated to staff and students. | | | | |
| | 2.16.1 - Align with good practice by consolidating Swinburne's formal | We now have a single go-to page in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment | Complete | Safer Community, Governance | Refer to resources list for person |
| | documentation relating to sexual assault and sexual harassment into stand- | | | and Integity | responsible for review of documents |
| | alone, clearly identified sexual assault and harassment policies and | | | | ., |
| | procedures. At a minimum, all formal documentation relating to sexual assaul | | | | |
| | or sexual harassment should include references or links to other relevant | • | | | |
| | documents. | | | | |
| | 2.16.2 - Consolidate Swinburne's online guidance so that the University's | We now have a single go-to page in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment | Complete | S-f S | Refer to resources list for person |
| | | we now have a single go-to page in relation to sexual assault and sexual narassment | Complete | | |
| | support and response services are presented in a manner that is accessible and clear to users. This could involve creation of a subsection of the | | | and Integity | responsible for review of documents |
| | Swinburne website that incorporates all available guidance relating to sexual | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | assault and sexual harassment. | | | | 2.6 |
| | 2.17.1 - Formally document definitions of the key concepts identified | Definitions covered under the 'Preventing sexual assault and sexual harassment' page | Complete | Safer Community, HPPP team | Refer to resources list for person |
| | across Swinburne's documentation so that definitions of key | on the website. | | | responsible for review of documents |
| | concepts are accessible, consistent and aligned with good practice, | | | | |
| | and communicate updates to relevant staff and students. | | | | |
| | 2.18.1 - Update relevant formal documentation (e.g. Swinburne's People, | Formal documentation currently being updated to include specific prohibition of | In progress | ??PP&C | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for this |
| | Culture and Integrity policy) to include specific prohibition of sexual assault. | sexual assault | | 1 | years actions related to this |
| | Amendments to policies and procedures should be communicated to relevant | | | 1 | recommendation |
| | students and staff. | | | 1 | |
| | 2.19.1 - In conjunction with Safer Community and Health Services, formally | Process flow for Wellbeing & Safer Community' developed. Refer to resources tab for | Complete | | Refer to resources list for person |
| | document the roles and responsibilities of Safer Community and | link. | | at Swinburne | responsible for review of document |
| | Health and Wellbeing Services, and communicate this to students | | | 1 | |
| | and staff, including: | | | 1 | |
| | Key roles and responsibilities | | | | |
| | Guidance on when Safer Community should be engaged, | | | 1 | |
| | and when Health and Wellbeing Services should be engaged | | | | |
| | Details of how Safer Community may respond to reported | | | | |
| | incidents | | | | |
| | When making updates to formal documentation, management | | | | |
| | should ensure that information is accessible and sufficiently | | | | |
| | consolidated. | | | | |
| | 2.20.1 - Implement further measures to enforce completion of mandatory | Information regarding sexual harassment is covered within the Working Together | Complete | Safer Community, PP&C | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for details o |
| | staff training modules (including Working Together). This could include | module that all staff are required to complete. This is further extrapolated in the | Complete | surer community, 11 ac | annual evaluation |
| | additional communications to staff, formal completion deadlines, and | Positive Workplace Behaviours program (face-to-face) which all Managers are | | | allitual evaluacion |
| | sanctions for non-completion. | required to complete. | | | |
| | sanctions for non-completion. | required to complete. | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | Staff members who are more likely to receive disclosures have been enrolled in the | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with | | | |
| | | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. | | | |
| | 2.22.1 - Consider updating Swinburne's formal documentation and training | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with | In progress | ??PP&C | Status and responsible person to be |
| | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. | In progress | ??PP&C | Status and responsible person to be confirmed. |
| | | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - | in progress | ??PP&C | |
| | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - | In progress | ??PP&C | |
| | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - | In progress | ??PP&C | |
| Recommendation 4 | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - | In progress Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to | | |
| Recommendation 4 | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to | All | |
| | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module- STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: • Primary prevention | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the Interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence. | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assaut and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Inclied integregency response | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Early intervention - Counselling, support and recovery | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: Secure the Immediates afety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Larly intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: Secure the Immediates afety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Early intervention - Early intervention - Lacident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: Secure the Immediates afety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence conselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • secure the immediate safety and wellobing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Larly intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting - Policies and procedures | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: * secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment * are clear and accessible | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Early intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes Continuous improvement Recording and reporting Policies and procedures Roles and responsibilities | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual sasault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment are clear and accessible provide individuals with control over what happens to their report have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Larly intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting - Policies and procedures | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment sexual harassment in the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: - secure the immediates afety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault and sexual harassment - are clear and accessible - provide individuals with control over what happens to their report - have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances - provide students with support to continue with their studies | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Early intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes Continuous improvement Recording and reporting Policies and procedures Roles and responsibilities | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment on the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: - secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment - are clear and accessible - provide providuals with control over what happens to their report - have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances - provide students with support to continue with their studies - provide specialist support, from someone who has specialist expertise and training | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Early intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes Continuous improvement Recording and reporting Policies and procedures Roles and responsibilities | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment • are clear and accessible • provide individuals with control over what happens to their report • have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with support from someone who has specialist expertise and training in sexual assault, sexual harassment and trauma counselling of sexual assault | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Early intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes Continuous improvement Recording and reporting Policies and procedures Roles and responsibilities | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment are clear and accessible provide individuals with control over what happens to their report have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances provides underst with support to continue with their studies provide specialist support, from someone who has specialist expertise and training in sexual assault, sexual harassment and trauma counselling of sexual assault survivors, and | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Early intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes Continuous improvement Recording and reporting Policies and procedures Roles and responsibilities | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment • are clear and accessible • provide individuals with control over what happens to their report • have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances • provide specialist support, from someone who has specialist expertise and training in sexual assault, sexual harassment and traume counselling of sexual assault | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Early intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes Continuous improvement Recording and reporting Policies and procedures Roles and responsibilities | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously | All | |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • are clear and accessible • provide individuals with control over what happens to their report • have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with susport to continue with specialist expertise and training in sexual assault, sexual harassment and trauma counselling of sexual assault survivors, and • accommodate the needs of students from a diverse range of backgrounds. | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: Primary prevention Early intervention Early intervention Incident/emergency response Counselling, support and recovery Investigation/disciplinary processes Continuous improvement Recording and reporting Policies and procedures Roles and responsibilities Culture and capabilities | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously and improved or replaced to meet best practice. | All | confirmed. |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • are clear and accessible • provide individuals with control over what happens to their report • have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with support to continue with their studies • provide students with susport to continue with specialist expertise and training in sexual assault, sexual harassment and trauma counselling of sexual assault survivors, and • accommodate the needs of students from a diverse range of backgrounds. | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A 2.20.2 - Identify staff members who may be more likely to receive a | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-ied review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Larly intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting - Policies and procedures - Roles and responsibilities - Culture and capabilities - Staff members who are most likely to receive disclosures of sexual assault have been | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously and improved or replaced to meet best practice. | All | confirmed. Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment are clear and accessible* provide individuals with control over what happens to their report have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provides students with support to continue with their studies provides students with support to continue with their studies provides students with support to continue with their studies provid | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A 2.20.2 - Identify staff members who may be more likely to receive a disclosure of sexual violence, and enforce mandatory completion of | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting - Policies and procedures - Roles and responsibilities - Culture and capabilities Staff members who are most likely to receive disclosures of sexual assault have been identified and are required to complete the 'Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment: | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously and improved or replaced to meet best practice. | All | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions related to reviewing this |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment are clear and accessible provide individuals with control over what happens to their report have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances provides underst with support to continue with their studies provide specialist support, from someone who has specialist expertise and training in sexual assault, sexual harassment and trauma counselling of sexual assault survivors, and | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A 2.20.2 - Identify staff members who may be more likely to receive a disclosure of sexual violence, and enforce mandatory completion of the Responding to Disclosures of Sexual Violence raining module | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-ied review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Larly intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting - Policies and procedures - Roles and responsibilities - Culture and capabilities - Staff members who are most likely to receive disclosures of sexual assault have been | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously and improved or replaced to meet best practice. | All | confirmed. Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment are clear and accessible* provide individuals with control over what happens to their report have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide students with support to continue with their studies provide s | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A 2.20.2 - Identify staff members who may be more likely to receive a disclosure of sexual violence, and enforce mandatory completion of | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting - Policies and procedures - Roles and responsibilities - Culture and capabilities Staff members who are most likely to receive disclosures of sexual assault have been identified and are required to complete the 'Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment: | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously and improved or replaced to meet best practice. | All | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions related to reviewing this |
| In order to ensure that actions taken by universities to prevent and respond to sexual assault and sexual harassment are appropriate, within a year of the release of this report, universities should commission an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways in relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment. This review should assess the effectiveness of existing university policies and pathways and make specific recommendations to universities about best practice responses to sexual assault and sexual harassment. In the interim, and at an institutional level, universities should draw on sexual violence counselling expertise to develop and review processes for responding to sexual assault and sexual harassment of students to ensure that they: • secure the immediate safety and wellbeing of the individual who has experienced the sexual assault or sexual harassment • are clear and accessible • provide individuals with control over what happens to their report • have the flexibility to suit individual circumstances • provide specialist support, from someone who has specialist expertise and training in sexual assault, sexual harassment and trauma counselling of sexual assault sur/viors, and • accommodate the needs of students from a diverse range of backgrounds. Recommendation 5 Universities should conduct an assessment to identify staff members and student | materials in order to recognise collective responsibility or shared accountability of all staff and students in relation to prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment. N/A 2.20.2 - Identify staff members who may be more likely to receive a disclosure of sexual violence, and enforce mandatory completion of the Responding to Disclosures of Sexual Violence raining module | Universities Australia responding to disclosures module produced in partnership with the Australian Psychological Society. People & Culture are working on integrating messaging into the induction module - STATUS UNCLEAR Swinburne commissioned an independent, expert-led review of existing university policies and response pathways and prevention initiatives in relation to sexual assault and sexual harsament. The review, conducted by PWC, noted many instances of good practice and highlighted areas for improvement. The full independent report was released in September 2018. The recommendations within the report then informed the work of the RNA Taskforce for the remainder of 2018 and throughout 2019. Since September 2018, action has been taken to address the following key areas for improvement: - Primary prevention - Early intervention - Incident/emergency response - Counselling, support and recovery - Investigation/disciplinary processes - Continuous improvement - Recording and reporting - Policies and procedures - Roles and responsibilities - Culture and capabilities Staff members who are most likely to receive disclosures of sexual assault have been identified and are required to complete the 'Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment: | Strategies and programs that have been implemented in response to the review will be continuously evaluated regarding their effectiveness and any outstanding actions will continue to be addressed. Primary prevention training programs will be evaluated continuously and improved or replaced to meet best practice. | All | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions related to reviewing this |

| when we shall are an early and produced and the desiration and place of the product of the produ | 1 | | | | | 1 |
|--|---|--|--|----------|--------------------------|---|
| ## distance with the control processing of the control of the cont | receive training in responding to disclosures of sexual assault and sexual harassment, | of this review, develop and administer targeted training or guidance in order to address any identified risks that are not mitigated by existing training or | | Complete | | related to reviewing what training is available to staff. |
| Decommendation 6 Substitute the property of the company of the | | gardance trial is available | received face-to-face training from ECASA on responding to disclosures of sexual | | | planning procedure for process of determining staff related primary |
| Section of the control of the contro | | | Currently investigating providing staff with access to the Consent Matters module. | | | |
| stance of contract and contract description of the company of the | Recommendation 6 | | Developed formal procedures for regular trend analysis of aggregated University data (maintained by Governance and Integrity). | Complete | Governance and Integrity | |
| sego into inspection the composition content of the composition content content of the composition con | of sexual assault and sexual harassment is collected and stored confidentially and | | | | | |
| The content of the region and supply refer the ground in supply referred to produce of the region and supply referred to produce of the region and supply referred to the region of the supply of conception in recision of the ground and produced to recipion of the content of the region of the supply of the content of the region of the supply of the content of the supply of the su | steps taken to respond to the complaint/incident, i.e.: whether the individual reported to police, whether the perpetrator was moved to a different lecture/tutorial support or assistance received, i.e.: whether the person received counselling from university services, whether they reported to police, whether they received support | and risk identification, and consider the need to allocate additional resources | behavioural concerns which may be reported by both staff and student as well as to provide referrals to appropriate internal and external services. | Complete | Safer Community | related to reviewing sufficieny of resources to ensure early |
| Access to the information should be limited to part members with improbability for execution the first information which the limited to part members with improbability for the control of the part of of the p | • time taken to respond to the report and/or refer the person to support services, and | | Community team, there are at present sufficient resources to manage | | | |
| 2.13.1. Develop processes for regular months - Visio of the freshill and well-being and self-or community. Name of the condition of the processes of the self-or any | Access to this information should be limited to staff members with responsibility for responding to disclosures and reports and those responsible for improving university | This should include processes for review and investigation of incidents, management of confidential information, and undertakings regarding secure | STATUS UNCLEAR | ? | ? | related to determining status of this |
| section for any excission programmentation or an important programment program | On a regular basis – at least every six months – Vice-Chancellors should be provided | services to gather immediate feedback about the services and support | | Complete | | |
| 2.13.1 - Develop processes for regard from an environment of recision that is not appeared by the control of | which arise, along with recommendations for any necessary improvements to | | | | | responsible for review of feedback forms for both Safer Community and |
| relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment, and consider the inconcilusor of inconcilusor of inconcilusor of inconcilusor of information index doubting that will address the identified issues relating to the use of multiple, standardone systems for data capture and excendition of information developed. 2.15.1 Eventure processor for gradul formation pland the developed. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradul formation pland the developed of the regular formal reporting to switchure's Executive Leaderhip) Team (e.g. bi-annually) of aggregated recorded data on incidents of sexual assault and sexual harassment, and consideration of information developed. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradul formation plant for inconcilusor and consolidation of information developed. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradul formation reporting to switchure's Executive Leaderhip) Team (e.g. bi-annually) of aggregated recorded data on incidents of sexual assault and sexual harassment in sexual assault and sexual harassment in the interview of consolidation of information developed. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradul formation of sexual assault and sexual harassment in sexual assault and sexual harassment in sexual assault and sexual harassment in sexual processors in gradult formation (including services to an incidents) developed. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradult formation (including services) and high-level tread analysis over the available data. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradult formation (including services and assault and sexual harassment in the inventury exponent, the available data. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradult formation (including services and assault and sexual harassment) developed. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradult formation (including services) and high-level tread analysis over the available data. 2.15.2 Eventure processor for gradult formation (including services and sexual to sexual sexual tread to minder the service of the second tread analysis over the available data. 2.15.2 Eventur | | received. This should be used to inform decision-making. Processes developed by Swinburne should be formally documented and communicated to all | | Complete | | Refer to resource list for person responsible for maintaining these |
| A process has been developed for regular formal reporting to Swinburne's Executive Leadership Team (e.g. b-in-annully) of aggregated recorded data on incidents of sexual assault and sexual harassment. This should include the number of incidents reported, as well as the University response, the outcome (including sanctions), and high-relever tread analysis over the available data. Processes should be formally documented and communicated to all relevant staff. A process has been developed for regular formal reporting to Swinburne's Executive Leadership Team of aggregated recorded data on incidents of sexual assault and sexual harassment. This should include the number of incidents reported, as well as the University response, the outcome (including sanctions), and high-relever tread analysis over the available data. Processes should be formally documented and communicated to all relevant staff. | | relation to sexual assault and sexual harassment, and consider the introduction of a system based solution that will address the identified issues relating to the use of multiple, standalone systems for data capture and reporting. Where integration and reconciliation of data cannot be automated, formal processes for regular manual reconciliation and consolidation of | and sexual harassment have been reviewed, with a formal process for manual | Complete | Governance and Integrity | related to continual review of system of data capture, and process of manual reconciliation and |
| sanctions), and high-level trend analysis over the available data. Processes should be formally documented and communicated to all relevant staff. N/A *This recommendation 7 Within six months of this report, but as soon as possible, universities should conduct an audit of university counselling services to assess. * the capacity of university counselling services to respond to students' requests for counselling in an appropriately timely manner, and * how many university counselling in an appropriately timely manner, and * how many university counselling in working with sexual assault survivors. As part of this audit, universities should collect data on: * the average length of time students are required to wait to see a university counselling received. This data should be assessed to determine whether additional counselling services are * Conjunction of an ECAS, EDVOS (specialist family violence service. * Collocation of an ECAS, EDVOS (specialist family violence services. * Collocation of an ECAS, EDVOS (specialist family violence services. * Collocation of an ECAS, EDVOS (specialist family violence services. * Collocation of an ECAS, EDVOS (specialist family violence services. * Collocation of an ECAS, EDVOS (specialist family violence services. * Consuming services. * Costant of an ECAS, EDVOS (specialist family violence services. * Costant as seased to determine whether additional counselling services are * Case management with Wellbeling services. * Case man | | 2.15.1 - Develop processes for regular formal reporting to Swinburne's Executive Leadership Team (e.g. bi-annually) of aggregated recorded data on incidents of sexual assault and sexual | Leadership Team of aggregated recorded data on incidents of sexual assault and | Complete | Governance and Integrity | related to bi-annual reporting to |
| within six months of this report, but as soon as possible, universities should conduct an audit of university counselling service and assessed its adequacy, capacity, training and data within six months of this report, but as soon as possible, universities should conduct an audit of university counselling services to respond to students' requests for counselling services to respond to students' requests for counselling in an appropriately timely manner, and * In addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. * In addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. * In addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. * The following tasks were also completed in support: * Strengthened referral pathways to counsellors. * All counselling and nursing staff received training in working with victim-survivors of sexual assault. * Co-location of an ECASA, EDVOS (specialist family violence service in Melbourne's eastern Region) and Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) counsellors will be ing services. * Case management with Wellbeing services. * Case management with Wellbeing services. | | sanctions), and high-level trend analysis over the available data. Processes should be formally documented and communicated to | university's response, the outcome (including sanctions), and high-level trend analysis | | | |
| Within six months of this report, but as soon as possible, universities should conduct an audit of university counselling services to assesses: Swinburne's counselling service and assessed its adequacy, capacity, training and data collection. In addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. In addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. In addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. In the following tasks were also completed in support: As part of this audit, universities should collect data on: In addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. Strengthened referral pathways to counsellors. All counselling and universities should collect data on: All counselling and universities should collect data on: All counselling and universities should collect data on: All counselling and universities and the support: All counselling services are All counselling services and assessed its adequacy, capacity, training and data collection. All counselling services are also completed in support: All counselling services and sessessed its adequacy, capacity, training and data collection. All counselling services and sessessed its adequacy, capacity, training and data collection. All counselling services and sessessed its adequacy, capacity, training and data collection. All counselling services to expend to suit in separate to addition, this was also addressed above in recommendation 6 with respect to data collection. All counselling services to expend to suit in several accounts of the following tasks were also completed in support: All counselling services to expend to suit in several accounts of the following tasks were also completed in support: All counselling services to expend to suit in several accounts of the following tasks were also completed in support: All co | Recommendation 7 | N/A | | Complete | Welbeing at Swinburne | |
| the apparty of the strength of States and States and Counselling in an appropriately timely manner, and assault survivors. As part of this audit, universities should collect data on: * the average length of time students are required to wait to see a university counsellor sexual assault. * the average length of time students are required to wait to see a university sexual assault. * Co-location of an ECASA, EDVOS (specialist family violence service in Melbourne's excusellor, and * the number of urgent/crisis requests for counselling received. * This data should be assessed to determine whether additional counselling services are * Case management with Wellbeing services. * Case management with Wellbeing services. | | | | | | |
| assault survivors. As part of this audit, universities should collect data on: • Strengthened referral pathways to counsellors. • All counselling and nursing staff received training in working with victim-survivors of • the average length of time students are required to wait to see a university counsellor, and • the number of urgent/crisis requests for counselling received. • the number of urgent/crisis requests for counselling received. This data should be assessed to determine whether additional counselling services are • Case management with Weilbeing services, ECASA/EDVOS/AOD counsellors. | counselling in an appropriately timely manner, and | | | | | |
| All counselling and nursing staff received training in working with victim-survivors of sexual assault. the average length of time students are required to wait to see a university sexual assault. Co-location of an ECASA, EDVOS (specialist family violence service in Melbourne's the number of urgent/crisis requests for counselling received. This data should be assessed to determine whether additional counselling services are All counselling and nursing staff received training in working with victim-survivors of sexual assault. Co-location of an ECASA, EDVOS (specialist family violence service in Melbourne's Eastern Region) and Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) counsellor within Swinburne's wellbeing services. Case management with Wellbeing services, ECASA/EDVOS/AOD counsellors. | | | The following tasks were also completed in support: | | | |
| Co-location of an ECASA, EDVOS (specialist family violence service in Melbourne's counsellor, and the number of urgent/crisis requests for counselling received. This data should be assessed to determine whether additional counselling services are - Co-location of an ECASA, EDVOS (specialist family violence service in Melbourne's wellbeing services. - Eastern Region) and Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) counsellor within Swinburne's wellbeing services. - Case management with Wellbeing services, ECASA/EDVOS/AOD counsellors. | | | All counselling and nursing staff received training in working with victim-survivors of | | | |
| wellbeing services. This data should be assessed to determine whether additional counselling services are • Case management with Wellbeing services, ECASA/EDVOS/AOD counsellors. | counsellor, and | | Co-location of an ECASA, EDVOS (specialist family violence service in Melbourne's | | | |
| | the number of urgent/crisis requests for counselling received. | | wellbeing services. | | | |
| required to meet the urgent needs of students who have experienced sexual assault or harassment. • Waiting times have been reduced through the implementation of a triage service for both mental health and medical. | required to meet the urgent needs of students who have experienced sexual assault | | Two restructures undertaken to better service students. Waiting times have been reduced through the implementation of a triage service for both mental health and medical. | | | |
| If additional counselling services are required, universities should ensure that these additional resources are in place as soon as practicable. | | | Counselling waiting times are monitored on a weekly basis. | | | |

| Recommendation 8 | N/A | It is our understanding that Universities Australia will commission this survey on behalf of Australian universities. | N/A | All | The university is committed to participating in future surveys. |
|---|---|---|----------|----------------------|--|
| Universities should engage an independent body to conduct the National university | | | | | |
| student survey of sexual assault and sexual harassment at three yearly intervals to | | | | | |
| track progress in reducing the prevalence of these incidents at a sector-wide level. | | | | | |
| Recommendation 9 | 2.12.1 - In conjunction with Student Residences staff, review the Swinburne Student Residences Code of Conduct 2018, and update where required, in | Student Residence Code of Conduct has been updated accorindgly | Complete | Swinburne Residences | Refer to 2021 RNA plan for actions related to ongoing review of |
| In addition to considering the implementation of the university recommendations | order to ensure that the formal documentation is reflective of current | | | | university Residences Code of |
| made in this report, residential colleges and university residences should commission | practice. This should include clear definitions of the different categories of | | | | Conduct and communicating any |
| an independent, expert-led review of the factors which contribute to sexual assault | misconduct, along with illustrative examples and details of the available | | | | updates. |
| and sexual harassment in their settings. | sanctions for each category. Any updates to the code of conduct should be | | | | |
| | formally documented and communicated to staff and residents | | | | Refer to 'SASH related resources list |
| This review should consider: | | | | | for person responsible for |
| | | | | | maintaining Swinburne Student Residences Code of Conduct |
| appropriate responses by a college or university residence to reports of sexual | | | | | document. |
| assault and sexual harassment | | | | | document. |
| a trauma-informed and rights-based approach in a situation in which an allegation of | of | | | | |
| sexual assault has been made | | | | | |
| the ways that hazing practices and college 'traditions' facilitate a culture which may | ′ | | | | |
| increase the likelihood of sexual violence | | | | | |
| the role of alcohol in facilitating a culture which may increase the likelihood of sexual violence | | | | | |
| the level and nature of supervision in a twenty-four hour residential setting in which | h | | | | |
| the level and nature of supervision in a twenty-rour nour residential setting in which large numbers of young people are living away from home, and | " | | | | |
| the level and adequacy of training required to equip residential advisors to serve as | | | | | |
| first responders or in response to matters of sexual assault and harassment. | | | | | |