

Effective Editing and Proofreading Strategies

FREE 3-hour program
(online)

Why not enhance your academic writing skills and your editing and proofreading strategies?

Better writing helps get higher grades. Accurate writing is an essential skill for the workplace.

The Program:

You will need to print a sample of your writing (1-2 pages) and a computer as you will be practising the following skills on your own work:

- editing and improving content
- proofreading
- using academic language effectively
- structuring your writing clearly & logically

Upon completion of this program, you should see a clear improvement in the writing you have worked on and feel much more confident about your editing and proofreading strategies.

LAS offers two programs:

1. Intermediate to upper-intermediate English
2. Advanced English

Participation Certificate:

You will receive a Swinburne University of Technology Certificate if you complete the whole program (great for your resume)
