Sarah Weiss:

It takes more than a good business model to succeed in today's competitive marketplace. It takes great people that are encouraged to grow. With training tailored to your workforce needs you can empower your people to step into new projects and put forward new ideas. You'll build a robust and loyal workforce giving your organisation a competitive edge. When you invest in your people the return is huge.

Simone Goodwin:

At Swinburne Professional we offer customised training solutions developed hand-in-hand with you to meet the needs of your people and your business. We specialise in leadership and management, coaching, project management, soft skills and workplace health and safety. Our courses are practical hands-on and delivered by industry professionals who are expert training providers.

Rob Chetwynd:

Swinburne professional is a division of Swinburne University of Technology. A leader in providing bespoke learning and development programs. Innovative and dynamic Swinburne is a Tier one University renowned for its technological advancement and industry engagement.

Simone Goodwin:

Swinburne is an award-winning jewel sector University. The Swinburne professional team provides dynamic and agile services to industry. When you partner with us you'll be provided with a dedicated project manager and a tailored program.
