SWINBURNE X LINKEDIN INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM

30% fee reduction for online study in your home country

Swinburne has partnered with LinkedIn to bring you an exciting program that lets you start your course from home!

If eligible, you'll receive a 30% fee reduction on any units completed online before you join us on campus, here in Melbourne.

So, if you're impacted by travel restrictions, you'll automatically be considered for the Swinburne X LinkedIn International Program when you apply for a Swinburne course with a 2020 or 2021 intake.

DON'T DELAY, START YOUR COURSE TODAY!

The Swinburne X LinkedIn International Program is exclusive to our international student community and offers:

- 30% fee reduction on undergraduate and postgraduate units completed online in your home country
- Full credit for every online unit you complete
- Access to LinkedIn Learning for the duration of your course
- Seminars with LinkedIn experts on finding a job in Australia, standing out on LinkedIn and boosting your CV.

How will this help while I'm studying online?

The Swinburne X LinkedIn International Program helps:

KEEP YOUR COURSE ON TRACK

All units delivered online are taught by Swinburne academics who share the most up to date knowledge, across all subject areas.

SUPPORT YOUR COURSEWORK

Extra online learning materials from LinkedIn and Swinburne will enhance your main coursework.

STRENGTHEN YOUR CV

Complete LinkedIn Learning modules to earn badges, boost your LinkedIn profile and increase your exposure to potential employers.

LEARN AT YOUR OWN PACE

Access learning that's relevant to your study level and course – it's available online, anytime.
