[Icons of a stack of books appear above Coco's head.]

Okay, I'll be honest. I've had my uni work pile up on me before and I didn't know how to handle it.

So I reached out to a Student Success Coach and it completely changed how I work.

[Coco speaking with Rachel, a Student Success Coach, in the Success Hub.]

My Student Success Coach helped me build consistent study habits, crush my procrastination, and actually nail that work/life balance.

[Coco sitting in the Indigenous Learning Circles working on her laptop.]

And the best part is they meet you where you're at, whether you prefer in-person or online.

[Coco in a video call with Rachel as she sits outside, she waves.]

Hey Rachel!

[Rachel waves back to Coco on the video call.]

Hey Coco!

[Coco standing outside the Success Hub on John Street.]
