

Confirmation of 2026 Holiday Periods for International Students

This letter confirms the official holiday periods for international students enrolled at, or completing their studies with, Swinburne University of Technology in 2025 and 2026.

International students who hold a student visa must comply with visa work conditions outlined by the Department of Home Affairs.

Details can be found at:

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions/overview>

Work Rights Summary

- Students may only begin working once their course has officially commenced.
- Students may work up to 48 hours per fortnight while their course is in session.
- Students are permitted to work unlimited hours when their course is not in session.
- A course is considered not in session following the end of an assessment period, even if the student does not have any scheduled exams.
- For students enrolled in packaged courses, the time between courses is considered a course break at the end of an assessment period of the first course, and before the commencement of the second.
