SWINBURNE
UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY

For newly enrolled and continuing students in undergraduate and coursework masters programs.

Whether you are coming to Swinburne from secondary school, vocational education or returning to study, adapting to university life is going to involve some changes. This program clarifies what to expect and provides some strategies to succeed at university.

Students who attended this program in recent years received an average mark 4-5% higher than students who did not attend.

The program is run across five days, Monday 18 – Friday 22 February, 2019. Lunch will be provided for participants each day of the program.

Registration is ideal but not necessary, please feel free to come along for as many sessions as you can.

Details about the program can be found on the registration page: swi.nu/strategies

Academic Development Advisers.

Academic Development Advisers provide students with individual consultation on issues affecting study performance and organise weekly study support groups to improve your academic performance. All of our services are FREE for current students.

Our services include:

- Putting you in touch with the most appropriate support services
- Helping with your transition to university study
- Assisting you; if you are identified as “at risk” or probation / “show cause”; address issues impeding you from achieving your best academic results

Swinburne Study Groups.

Study Groups are available in several “difficult” first year units. A successful previous student in the unit leads peer study for one hour per week. swi.nu/ssg

Swin-Mentors.

The Swin-Mentors program is designed to help new Swinburne students (mentees) learn about different aspects of university life from experienced students who have been through the same situation. swi.nu/mentors

Swinburne Peer Assistants (SPAs).

Swinburne Peer Assistants (SPAs) are students who have been selected and trained to help other students from the same study area. swi.nu/spa
