Unit descriptions*

Building Financial Relationships (FIN80008)
Explores how financial institutions develop, price, and market financial products and services in a global economy. Topics include an examination of the variety of financial products available, product packaging and pricing decisions, cross-selling, and relationship building in a competitive marketplace.

The Ethical Leader (ORG80014)
From crises within our religious institutions to corporate fraud, our news is filled with examples of an ethical void in leadership and our society today. Citizens and employees alike are demanding that our leaders go beyond mere accountability for their actions; they’re demanding moral leadership in both our institutions and society overall. Using case studies ad current events, this course considers the conflicts that can arise when individual values conflict with those of the organization. The course examines actions leaders have taken and consequences faced when confronted with ethical dilemmas. From these learnings, a personal model for ethical leadership will be developed. This course will include field trips to local businesses in the Boston area.
