

Screen, Media and Communication at Swinburne

swinburne.edu.au/international

On-screen entertainment has an extraordinary impact on our culture and influences how we see the world.

Screen, media and communication courses open your mind to creating for the digital space. Our courses combine design principles with practical learning. Your studies will introduce you to the latest technologies used in digital media.

Our film school is one of the best in Australia and offers courses that combine foundational knowledge with practical skills. Our games students have won international awards. Most recently, a group of eight Swinburne students won the 2017 Student Game Award at the Game Awards in Los Angeles, USA, for their game 'Level Squared'.

This bachelor degree has been challenging but always rewarding. The lecturers are consistently striving to improve our skills and are always readily available to help when we need it.

Takumi

Studying Bachelor of Film and Television

In the final year of his degree, Takumi wrote and directed 'Paper Crane', a short narrative film which screened at the 68th Berlin Film Festival and at the Melbourne International Film Festival in 2018. The film will also screen at the Palm Springs Film Festival in 2018.
